

Level Up

Education, Jobs & Careers

from no high school diploma to a GED

from a high school diploma to college or skilled trades

from some college or degree to a higher level career

November 15, 2019 • 9 am to 2 pm
Royal Oak Campus Cafeteria

Keynote speaker Nicole Jennings: Native of Detroit, Nicole Jennings is no stranger to obstacles. With determination and guidance she has been able to accomplish her professional and educational goals.

Breakout Sessions will include topics such as: How to obtain your GED, applying to college, maneuvering through financial aid, career interest surveys, pre-employment skills, and more.

Register at bit.ly/2019Level

WORKSHOPS

Information to complete a GED

Looking to start college application, financial aid, scholarships

Those looking to move to the next employment level resume writing, employer expectations, job search and interview skills

VENDORS

local and state agencies available to assist individuals, prospective employers, union representatives for apprenticeship information, and others

Contact Trina Pierce at 248.522.3501 or tlpierce@oaklandcc.edu. for more information